Shannon Johnson grew up in a small coal-mining town in eastern Kentucky. She graduated from the University of Louisville School of Dentistry in 2002 and completed her Advanced Education in General Dentistry Certificate at the University of Florida in St. Petersburg in 2003. Ever passionate about providing the very best care for her patients, Dr. Johnson is an avid continuous learner attending countless hours of continuing education each year from the professions best and brightest.

An educator at heart, Dr. Johnson has taught at both the University of Florida and the University of Louisville. She is an associate faculty member at the Dawson Academy where Dr. Johnson dedicates time to help dentists around the world master the skills necessary to predictably restore simple to complex cases with outcomes that are both beautiful and functional. She is the current President of the Dawson Association for Complete Dentistry and leads two Dawson Academy Study Clubs. Dr. Johnson has taught at both the University of Florida and the University of Louisville. Dr. Johnson practices in Louisville, Kentucky where she and her husband, Jason, have a beautiful daughter, Veronica. Together they enjoy Disney, traveling, SCUBA, cooking, movies, video games, and various nerd cultures.
